Our standard games are:

- Flag Capture: In this game teams start at opposing bases at either end of the field. The objective is to get to the other teams base without being shot, Capture their flag and return it to your own base. The first team to succeed wins. Don't forget you have to do this without being tagged by the 'enemy'.
- Centre Flag: This is similar to flag capture, but we start with a flag in the centre of the field, with the objective being to get the flag and take it to the other team's base to win.
- Ambush: In this game, one team goes into the field to a destination of their own choosing, and setup a base. When the game starts, the other team has to find them and capture the flag, taking it 5 meters from where it was hanging to win.

- Zombie: This is usually played at the end of day, and quite simply is a 'shoot em up' type of game where there is no game objective. No one is out until they run out of pellets. This game is hugely popular, which could prove there are some really strange people out there.

Safety Rules:

- Safety masks must be worn at all times during game play and while on the playing field. At no stage may a player remove his or her goggles without the express permission of a marshal. Should you be shot on the goggles or your goggles mist up to such an extent that you cannot see, call a marshal who will assist you. This is the most important rule, which is why it is rule number one. Any player found lifting his or her goggles will be considered to be "out" and will only be able to resume play during the next game.
- When off the field the supplied barrel plug must be inserted into the Paintball marker, and the Paintball markers must be carried by the gas cylinder pointing towards the ground.
- Headshots do not count. IE any shot above the level of the chin. Please do not deliberately shoot another player above this line.
- When at ranges closer than 5 meters the 'freeze' rule applies.
